In the year 1767, the Society for propagating Christian Knowledge published the first edition of the following tranflation of the New Teftament, into the Gaelic language. In the opinion of good judges, the work was executed in the moft faithful manner, and it has been well received in every part of the Highlands. The author however was himfelf fenfible in that it was fufeeptible of improvement, and in an interleaved copy marked with his own hand feveral corrections, which in the prefont edition have been carefully made. With a view to its further improvement, the tranflation has lately in whole, or in part, been revifed by gentlemen in different parts of the Highlands, who were
